Alan Livingston grew up in Albertville, Alabama. Mr. Livingston's family has a tradition of producing fine attorneys, who in addition to himself includes uncle Jack Livingston of Scottsboro, sister Gail L. Mills with Burr & Forman in Birmingham, and younger brother David Livingston, who practices in Gadsden.

Mr. Livingston graduated from Birmingham-Southern College, and received his B. A. degree in 1970. He received his law degree from the University of Alabama School of Law in 1973, and was admitted to the Alabama State Bar in the same year. He has practiced continuously with Lee & McInish since 1973.

Mr. Livingston is presently admitted to practice in both the Middle and Northern Districts of Alabama, as well as the U. S. Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit. He has served as President of the Houston County Bar Association, as a Director of the Alabama Defense Lawyers Association, and is a member of the Alabama Defense Lawyers Association, the American Bar Association, the Houston County Bar Association, the International Association of Defense Counsel and the National Association of Railroad Trial Counsel. Mr. Livingston is a former president of the Dothan Area Chamber of Commerce, a former president of the National Peanut Festival, and currently serves as a member of the Board of Trustees for Birmingham-Southern College.

Mr. Livingston's practice is concentrated in the areas of medical negligence defense, products liability, workers' compensation, personal injury and railroad litigation defense.

Alan is married to the former Susan Haygood. Susan is from Greenville, Alabama. Alan and Susan have two children, Joanna and Jonathan.
